Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 17, 2020, Gulf Island Fabrication, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into an unsecured loan in the aggregate principal amount of $10.0 million (the “Loan”) with Hancock Whitney Bank (the “Lender”) pursuant to the Paycheck Protection Program (the “PPP”), which is sponsored by the Small Business Administration (the “SBA”). The PPP is part of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security Act (the “CARES Act”), and it provides for loans to qualifying businesses in a maximum amount equal to the lesser of $10.0 million and 2.5 times the average monthly payroll expenses of the qualifying business. The proceeds of the loan may only be used for payroll costs, rent, utilities, mortgage interests, and interest on other pre-existing indebtedness (the “permissible purposes”).

The Loan, and interest accrued thereon, is forgivable, partially or in full, if certain conditions are met. The most significant of the conditions are:

- only amounts expended for permissible purposes during the eight week period following April 17, 2020 (the “covered period”) are eligible for loan forgiveness;
- of the total amount of expenditures for which forgiveness can be granted, at least 75% must be for payroll costs, or a proportionate reduction of the maximum loan forgiveness amount will occur; and
- if there are reductions in headcount (or employee compensation is reduced by more than 25%) during the covered period, a further reduction of the maximum loan forgiveness amount will occur.

The Loan is evidenced by a promissory note, dated as of April 17, 2020 (the “Note”), between the Company, as the borrower, and the Lender. The Note matures on April 17, 2022 and bears interest at a fixed rate of 1.0 percent per annum, payable in 17 monthly payments commencing on November 17, 2020. The Loan may be prepaid at any time prior to maturity with no prepayment penalties. In order to obtain full or partial forgiveness of the Loan, the Company must request forgiveness and must provide satisfactory documentation in accordance with applicable SBA guidelines. The Company will be obligated to repay any portion of the principal amount of the Note that is not forgiven, together with interest accrued and accruing thereon at the rate set forth above, until such unforgiven portion is paid in full. The Company intends to use the Loan proceeds for only permissible purposes; however, the Company can provide no assurances that it will be eligible for forgiveness of the Loan, in whole or in part.

The foregoing summary is only a summary of certain provisions of the Note and is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Note, which will be filed as an exhibit to the Company’s quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2020.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

Reference is made to the disclosure under Item 1.01 above which is hereby incorporated in this Item 2.03 by reference. Upon a default under the Note, including the non-payment of principal or interest, the obligations of the Company under the Note may be accelerated and the Lender may pursue its rights under the Uniform Commercial Code and any other applicable law or in equity.

SIGNATURES
